Dear Friends,
Did you know that:

1. We are the Church ourselves. For this reason, Christians of the Byzantine Churches describe themselves as “Orthodox” in the Greek language, or as “Pravoslavnie” in the Slavonic tongue. To be an Orthodox means to be “right worshipping” to be one who worships God as he desires to be worshipped, which is to say: in Spirit and in Truth through the Eucharist of His Son, Jesus Christ. Right belief is the guarantee of right worship.
2. The great teachers of the faith in the Greek East, are St. Gregory of Nyssa, St. Gregory Nazianzus, St. Basil and St. John Chrysostom.
3. Most of the parish clergy of the Eastern Church are married; the Bishop, however, is always a monk, in order that he might be entirely free to minister his church, to his clergy and people, and is also a monk so that he may be a true father to his priests and people, sensitive to their needs and problems.

God Bless you all,
(Abounader)
